Location

Scenic landscapes, azure seas, world-class modern art, perfume from Grasse, amazing food and incredible historical heritage-this is what the french riviera has long been famous for, including of course the Cannes film festival and the Monaco Grand Prix.

The village of Valbonne dates back to 1519, built by Augustin de Grimaldi Bishop of Grasse and is today a key landmark in the region for visitors. During the summer Valbonne is a lively village with many attractions for children. The village boasts a lovely central square with several good restaurants, art shops and a weekly Friday morning market selling local produce. There are several major banks in the village, and a post office. Within a few minutes is a well stocked supermarket in Opio. English bookshop in the village.

There are excellent beaches along the coast at Cannes, Golfe Juan and Juan les Pins all within 20 minutes drive from Valbonne. All the beaches are served with beach front restaurants. Beach activities include; water skiing, jet skiing, scuba diving, sailing.

Among the many places of interest are the nearby villages of Mougins, Biot and St Paul de Vence, all worth a visit. The Gorges du Verdun are nearby, the deepest gorge in Europe as well as Mercantour Park for the hikers and Gourdon village where you can see to Corsica!

There is a bus which runs from Valbonne to Cannes.

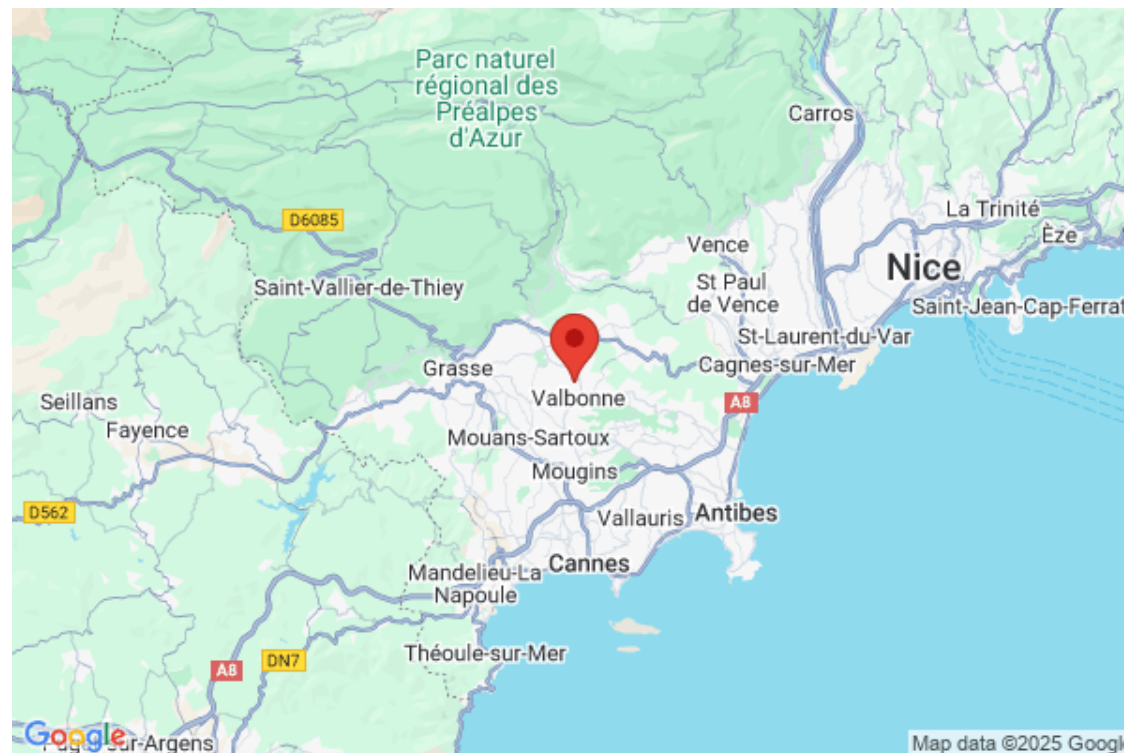

The owners have prepared a complete guide of local places of interest, leisure activities, medical services, fitness centres, and a list of local restaurants.

Special Interest Holidays

Owners can organise vineyard tours in the Var region.

Catering services also available.
