

Provençal Rose

Region: Provence

Sleeps: 9 Bedrooms: 5

Overview

Charismatic 18th century farmhouse lovingly restored to give guests a true authentic experience in this delightful region. Located between the lively town of Apt and the nearby quaint village of Saignon this villa offers striking views over the Luberon National Park.

Description

This villa in Provence is ideal for 2 families sharing, as the accommodation is divided between the main part of the house and a second wing, separated by a central hallway, and thus affording privacy and space for all. Country chic furnishings, beamed ceilings and tiled floors all help to create a charming property that is ideally placed for those who wish to explore this lovely region.

Provençal Rose is within close driving distance of the archetypal Provençal villages of Bonnieux, Lacoste, Menerbes, Gordes and Roussillon. Famous Avignon, the capital of Provence, and Aix-en-Provence, one of France's most beautiful university towns, are only about 30 miles away from this Provence villa.

Location

Saignon village 3 miles. Apt 4 miles. Gordes 9 miles. Avignon (TGV) & Aix-en-Provence 31 miles. Marseille airport 63 miles. Tennis 2 miles. Golf 20 miles. Cycling & walking in the Luberon National Park.

A short drive from the house you'll get to Apt with its famous weekly market on a Saturday and why not try the Bistro de France afterwards for lunch. Another little village worth a visit about 5-10 minutes away is Saignon, a hilltop village. Do make the extra effort and climb the rock of Saignon where you get a fantastic view across the landscape, then treat yourself to lunch afterwards at Le Baladine across the road from the church.
