Description

Le Mas de Doul is a beautiful family-friendly house located just outside the delightful village of Aigues-Vives between Nimes and Montpellier with a 30 minute ride to the beach. This is a fascinating region right on the edge of the famous Camargue National Reserve whose black bulls, white horses and pink flamingoes have fascinated visitors for centuries. The Mas has been restored by the owners in an individualistic fashion, reflecting their own lifestyle as show producers. If you would like to experience "La France Profonde", then this is the ideal property for you, your family and your friends.

Please note, if you are a fan of pristine decoration and elegant grounds then this is not the place for you. However, if you are looking for somewhere original, artistic, with a strong personality where you can just be yourselves in seclusion, comfort, and tranquillity then Mas de Doul will tick all your boxes.

One of the best things about this house is the shady and cool terrace under the magnificent old plane trees. A glass of something cold or al fresco dining à la Provençal could not be bettered.

This property has 3 bedrooms, plus a 4th bedroom which can only be accessed via one of the others. There are 3 bathrooms, a hammam in the old pigeon house and an extra-long lap pool measuring 14m x 3m. Large walled garden.

Stunning 'baby-grand' Bechstein piano in salon with 3 large sofas.

Pierre de Bourgogne terraces on two sides of the house so you will always find sun or shade, depending on the time of day.

Located in the village of Aigues-Vives in the Gard only 5 minutes walk from bars, shops and restaurants, this is an excellent spot from which to explore the Roman towns of Nimes and Arles, the medieval cities of Montpellier and Sommières and the mystery of the Camargue National Reserve.

There is a river beach nearby which is well-worth a visit.

The Mas has been restored using salvaged items brought in from both the UK and France, which give it a unique and artistic ambiance - even the windows were specially sourced!
