

Southern House

Region: Languedoc

Sleeps: 7 Bedrooms: 3

Overview

We'll let you in on a little secret...this property is one of a kind. Southern House has been refurbished in such a unique, simple and yet stylish way, keeping the authenticity of the house by leaving exposed bricks and beams and then adding antique furniture and modern furnishings to create a wonderful home where guests can relax and simply wind down.

Description

This is a real village house offering the real South of France village experience. With the house sitting right on one of the village squares, you will be neighbours with the elderly locals who have remained in the village, whilst for shops, restaurants and sitting in cafès, the charming town of Uzès is only a 12-15 minute drive away.

The Village is surrounded by orchards, rolling Hills, country roads and ponds which is typical of the South of France and the area offers plenty to do like walking, golf, cycling, exploring historical towns and wondering through markets as well as trying some of the region's excellent wines and restaurants. Southern House is a unique and ideal base for a for a relaxing getaway with friends or family.

The house has 3 levels. On the ground floor, there is a summer vaulted living room with a TV and a DVD player. The living rooms gives out on the outside courtyard with greenery. On the second level, there is a small sitting room, a dining room with a working fireplace. It is located next to the kitchen. There is a terrace outside the kitchen, where there is a table from where you have the view onto the courtyard. On this level, there is one bedroom with its own bathroom. On the second floor, there is one bedroom with a bathroom with a great view of the castle of the village. There is also a very large suite with a King size bed. The suite has wonderful view of the surrounding countryside, the roofs of the village and the castle. The suite has its own shower and bathroom.
