Description

This gorgeous 5 bedroom holiday cottage in France is located in the wine producing village of Caux, just a short drive from the Languedoc coast. This stone built holiday cottage has been completely renovated inside and provides very comfortable modern living. With 60cm thick stone walls, this property is naturally cool during the heat of the summer.

The cottage features a beautiful new kitchen, open plan living room, flat screen TV with satellite channels, 3 bathrooms and accommodation for up to 10 people.

Outside, there is a newly built swimming pool, two terraces, spacious parking for up to 3 cars and an outbuilding housing a games room and jacuzzi spa.

The village of Caux contains all the amenities that you will need during your stay. Within an easy walk, you will find a cafe-bar, restaurant, shop, butcher, boulangerie and a couple of local wine cellars. The historic town of Pezenas is just 2-3 minutes away and the beaches are just 20 mins drive. Caux is surrounded by vineyards in all directions and the village also benefits from the backdrop of the Black Mountains in the distance.

You will not find a better-equipped holiday cottage to rent in France than this property in Caux. The very friendly owners are on hand to ensure that your stay is comfortable and the privacy provided by the stone walls surrounding the cottage ensure that your family can enjoy a peaceful and relaxing stay. Caux is a great village to stay in and you do not need to wander far to enjoy restaurants, bars and shops.

This holiday cottage in Caux is accessed via a small side street, containing 5-6 houses. This is a very quiet and peaceful part of the village, but it is still only 2 minutes walk to the centre of the village. The house is surrounded by a stone wall, with a double gate providing access to the gravel driveway which can accommodate 2-3 cars. The outside of the cottage features the renovated stonework and restored shutters.

You enter the property into the open plan living room containing the dining area, modern kitchen and spacious lounge. The living room has a lovely vaulted ceiling, exposed beams and beautiful stone tiles. The antique oak dining table can easily seat 10-12 people and it is surrounded by a beautiful armoire and period sideboard. The main feature of the lounge is the exposed stone walls and the original stone horse trough. This is testament to the downstairs of this property originally being used as the stables of the house. The lounge features a large wall mounted flat screen TV with satellite channels, two large leather sofas and a coffee table.

Just off the lounge, there is an en suite double bedroom with antique bed and furniture. The bathroom contains a walk-in shower and wash basin. There is a separate toilet just next to the bedroom. French
