Location

Murviel les Beziers lies between the mountains and Mediterranean beaches and is settled amongst vineyards with a selection of boulangeries, butchers, a tabac/presse, chemist, post office, florist, hairdressers, bank, two bars and a weekly village market. There are 3 local wine cellars in the village.

Only five minutes by car to fresh water swimming in the River Orb or 25 minutes to sandy beaches. Beziers Airport is just 15 minutes drive from the house. Murviel Les Beziers is 30 minutes from beautiful sandy beaches and 15 minutes inland to the foothills of the Massif Central. The surrounding area abounds in history, including prehistoric sites, Roman ruins and Cathar castles. The village lies between beautiful Montpellier and ancient Carcassonne, each 45 minutes by car. The nearby Mediterranean coast is famous for its abundant seafood and shellfish. The tree lined Canal du Midi is just 15 minutes by car.

Murviel les Beziers has many fetes and festivals during the summer, the most famous of which is the 'Petetas' - during the months of July and August, the shopkeepers and tradesmen (and many local residents) adorn their shops, properties and pavements with life-size dolls of their trade and profession.
