Location

The property is located in the picturesque village of Ners of 550 inhabitants in the heart of the Gard region.

Ners, nestled away from the noise and trouble of the stresses of life, provides the necessary peace and quiet yet only a few minutes to shops and 25km to the town of Uzès, 30km to the Roman town of Nimes.

There is a grocery/bakery/post office/newsagent and a butchers in Ners.

Ners, surrounded by vineyards with the Gardon river flowing down the village, benefits from a very good geographical location and 300 sunny days a year.

The area offers a large variety of activities such as tennis, rafting, fishing, Horse riding, swimming, water sports, hiking, mountain-biking, museums, cinema, night club, amusement park.

The Mediterranean beaches are 55 km to the House and 40 Km to a ski-run.

The regional capital of Montpellier is deeply rooted in its history and definitely modern.

- The Place de la Comédie

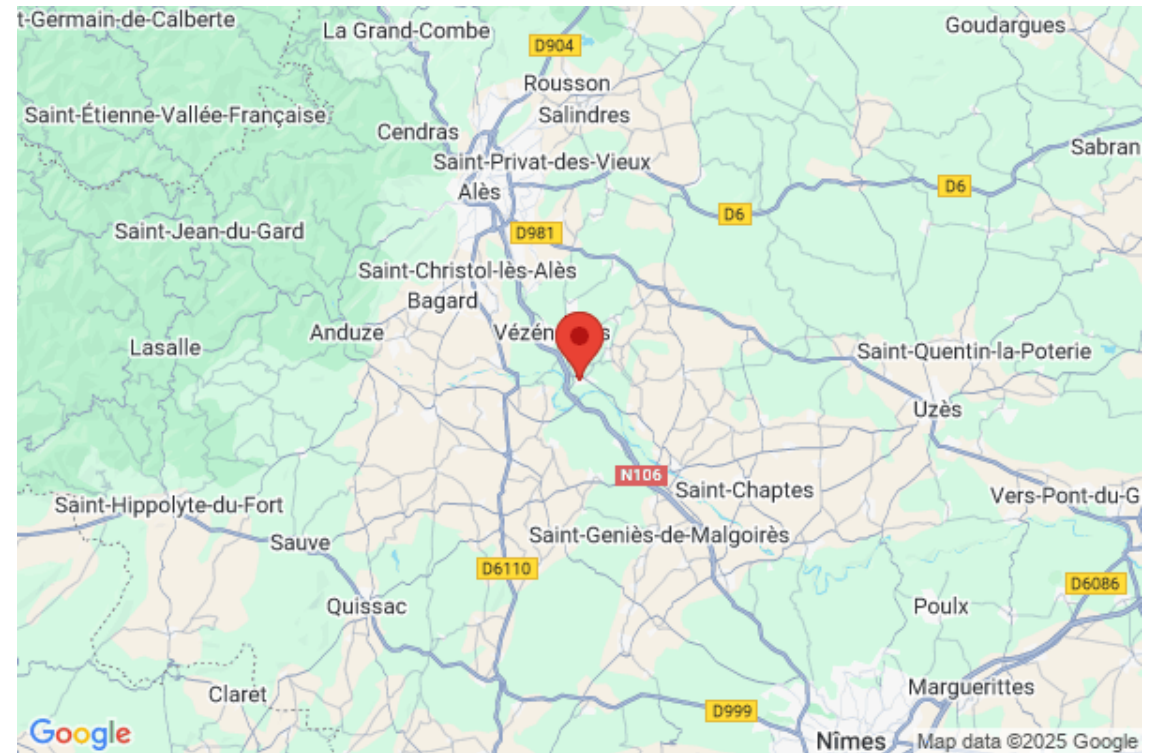

Montpellier's central square. Also known as l'OEuf (the Egg) because of its original oval shape, it is one of the largest pedestrian areas in Europe.

- Faculty of Medecine

Montpellier was only two centuries old in 1180, when its Lord Guilhem VIII signed a surprising and far-reaching edict. He declared that anyone, regardless of religion or background, could teach medicine in Montpellier.

- The Peyrou -the royal square-

The Peyrou esplanade with its panoramic view, towering statue of Louis XIV, Arc de Triomphe, water tower, and the ancient arches of a Roman aqueduct, Les Arceaux.

- The Botanical Garden

An oasis of peace for poets, an island of greenery for Montpellier, the Jardin des plantes is the oldest in France.

Around Montpellier :

The Camargue

The region of flamingos, bulls and white horses.

Nîmes

The Roman heritage.

Saint-Guilhem-le-Désert

The beautiful village on the route to Saint Jacques de Compostelle at the edge of the Gorges de l'Hérault.

Viaduct de Millau

The longest viaduct in Europe and one of the largest in the world, with piers 342 metres apart!

Sète

The fascinating birthplace of Brassens and Paul Valéry, famous poets, situated between the sea and the Thau lagoon, famous for its oyster farms.

Carcassonne

One of the most beautiful medieval settings in Europe.

Les Pyrenees

Between Spain, Andorra and Ariège stand the Pyrenees as beautiful in winter as in summer.
