From the Mediterranean to the Pyrenees, the Languedoc region displays a large variety of landscapes and prestigious sites.

The many authentic Cathar Country castles, Quéribus ou Peyreperthuse... and the Medieval City of Carcassonne (UNESCO World Heritage Site), the Romanesque abbeys and cloisters, or enjoy watching the pink flamingos flight over seaside lagoons are spectacular locations not to be missed.

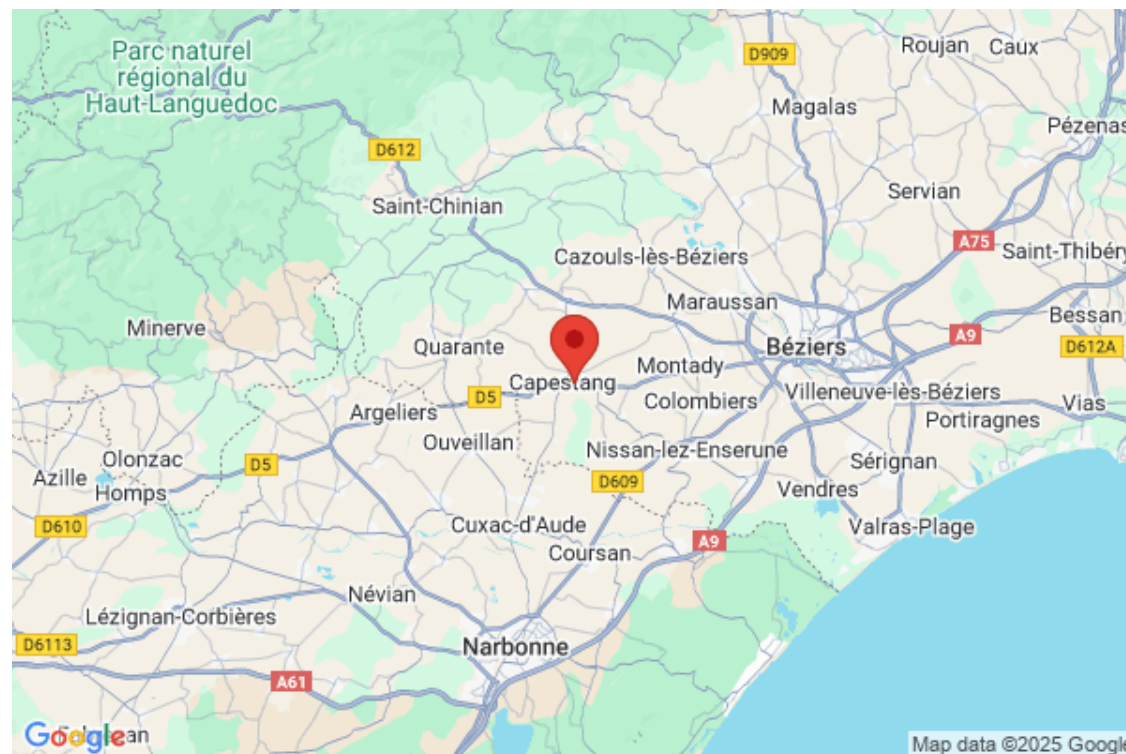

Take a walk to the fortified cite of Carcassonne only 20 km from the Property. Take a very pleasant walk and discover numerous handcraft shops, restaurants and cafés nested along ancient narrow streets in the City.

The 16th century 240 km long Canal du Midi, classified a World Heritage Site by UNESCO is well worth worth discovering by boat, bike on on foot along one of the two-path bordered with trees over three hundred years old.

Many lovely villages such as Lagrasse, Olargues, Pézenas, and the Fontfroide, Joncel ou Fontcaude abbeys are to discover as well as the lively town of Narbonne or the regional capital town of Montpellier's pedestrian town centre.

The inlands offer the Haut-Languedoc National Park, the Black Mountains ( les Montagnes Noires), the Tarn valley and the famous viaduc of Millau or the amazing plain of the Larzac.

The Sigean Safari Park with elephants, girafes, crocodiles... is only 45 km to the gite.
