When it comes to 'where to stay in Provence' – if you are looking for a quaint village full of charm and character then you're simply going to love Caromb.

Caromb is ideally located to explore and enjoy the department of Vaucluse. The Luberon National Park, with its picture postcard beauty and perched, hilltop villages is a 40 minute drive. Historic towns such as Avignon (with its amazing papal palace), Vaison la Romaine (with its Roman ruins) and Orange (with its complex history) are all within an easy drive.

Staying in a luxury rental in Caromb means you will be in an independant cultural niche in the middle of Provence. The area is historically rich and offers fantastic hiking and cycling opportunities thanks to its natural features.

Caromb is a charming village, sitting on a low hill in a beautiful valley south of the Mont Ventoux.

Caromb is at the centre of the Ventoux wine making territory, so be prepared to spend plenty of time exploring the local 'caves' and tasting the fantastic wine they have on offer. Domaine Chaumard is one of the best wineries locally, and it's located in Caromb. They also sell very reasonably priced Champagne which is excellent value for quality.
