Location

This villa is located in the wonderful village of Aigues-Vives, which is a beautiful and calm location in between Nimes and Montpellier.

The village is lively during the summer and boasts 3 bars, 2 fantastic restaurants, multiple boulangeries/pâtisseries/épiceries, a butcher, a LIDL supermarket, a pottery and home decor shop, a florist, a jewellers, a pizza van, a wine "cave" and an olive oil shop - all within walking distance from the villa.

During the summer months, there are multiple events such as a "brocante" (car boot sale) and the Fête de Garigouille - a 2-3 day festival that takes place every year in August, during which the whole village celebrates together with meals, entertainment, markets, "abrivados" (bull running) and more - not to be missed!

The coast is only 20 minutes away by car (Grande Motte or Grau du Roi) and the famous Pont du Gard is very nearby! Don't forget to visit Aigues Mortes, the arena in Nimes and the beautiful city of Montpellier.
