

The Estate

Region: Dordogne & Lot

Sleeps: 29 Bedrooms: 11

Overview

The Estate is a wonderful Chateau located a few kilometres from the village of Ste Foy La Grande in the Dordogne region, close to Bergerac. With 11 bedrooms and 10 bathrooms, this property sleeps up to 29 people and boasts very large grounds, a private swimming pool, plenty of activities for children (such as trampoline, games room, table tennis, pool table) and a gym.

Description

The Estate is 3km from the historic bastide town of Ste Foy La Grande, which sits on the banks of the River Dordogne. It has fishing and canoeing and boasts a large and lively Saturday market. The famous St Emilion wine region is within a 45-minute drive.

The Chateau reception rooms are large and elegant and include a main reception room with large fireplace and high ceilings, a flat-screen TV and satellite TV. There is a day room for reading and board games, a huge hallway which extends the full length of the house and a large dining room which can seat 14, with original wood panels/dresser with views over the beautiful grounds and pool. The kitchen has a walk-in larder, 3 fridges, 2 dishwashers, coffee machine and dining area. There is a single ensuite bedroom on the ground floor ideal for elderly guests.

There is an impressive staircase leading to a large upstairs hallway with 6 bedrooms, 5 double bedrooms, a triple bedroom and 5 bathrooms. There is a large cellar with washing machine, tumble dryer and drying area.

Across the quadrangle, in the adjacent self-contained Pigeonnier, the accommodation is more rustic with living room, kitchen/dining room which seats 11, downstairs cloakroom and access to a large covered BBQ/table tennis area overlooking the orchard.

There are 4 large bedrooms, 3 double bedrooms and 1 twin bedroom with private bathrooms. The master bedroom features a vaulted tower ceiling. In addition, 3 double bedrooms have an extra single bed. There is a gym/games room with a pool table attached to the Pigeonnier with a separate staircase in order that all guests have access.

There are 5 acres of grounds with stunning mature cedar trees and magnolia 'Grandiflora', a large swimming pool with 'Roman End' steps in the shallow end making it ideal for children. The pool is 10.5 x 4.8 m and boasts a walk-cover pool cover. There is a large poolside to accommodate all guests with sun loungers, parasols and table and chairs and BBQ. The pool house features a fridge, sink, shower and changing area. It is an ideal space guest to enjoy alfresco dining with friends and family. There is a large trampoline and fishing pond. The large courtyard can easily accommodate large groups with several tables and chairs available. There is a lovely large covered space rear the Pigeonnier for guest to relax under.

Location

The Chateau is 3km from the historic 'Bastide' town of Ste-Foy-La-Grande which sits on the banks of the River Dordogne. Founded in 1255, Sainte-Foy retains much of the original architecture, and the covered archways in the town centre are still used today as focal point for the large Saturday market. There are several boulangeries, a small supermarket, boutique shops and restaurants. On the outskirts there are two large supermarkets.

The Chateau is ideally positioned just 25 minutes drive from Bergerac International Airport with Ryanair and Flybe flying in from several destinations, including London Gatwick, Stansted, Southampton, Exeter and Bristol. Bordeaux Airport is 1hr 30 minutes away servicing even more UK and worldwide destinations. The famous wine region and town of St Emilion is a 45 minute drive away - an absolute must for wine lovers.

Ste Foy La Grande train station is just 2km from the Chateau with interconnecting link to high speed TGV in Libourne 40 minutes away.
