Location

Faugères is a sweet little traditional village overlooking the mountains and vineyards of the Haut Languedoc.

The village has all of the basic amenities such as a post office, a couple of bars, a couple of restaurants, a butchers and a boulangerie. There are some larger supermarkets in the nearby town of Bédarieux.

Known for its wine, there is a local Cave and Vigneron that is worth a visit and a tasting!

The surrounding area of Faugères is fantastic for adventure-lovers, there are plenty of hiking/walking routes, cycle paths and adventure sports.
