Description

Authentic 18th-century stone Villa (Mas Provençal) in Fayence, in the area known as "Little Tuscany"

Are you seeking a peaceful and authentic place to stay in Provence Côte d'Azur? Look no further than this truly delightful 18th-century stone Villa, which has been completely renovated with taste and high-quality materials. Located just 700 meters from the popular village of Fayence, this property offers a serene and verdant environment.

The Villa is surrounded by a large mature garden spanning approximately 2000m², featuring century-old plants such as cypress, olive, walnut, hazel, elder, fig, medlars, linden, oleander, perfumed roses, and yuccas. The garden is thoughtfully designed across one flat terrace and is accompanied by a charming little stream.

The house itself is tastefully and comfortably furnished, offering one bedroom. Additionally, you will have access to two private parking spaces inside the property.

The property comes fully furnished with all the amenities you would need for cooking, dining, and sleeping. It includes cable WIFI, TV, smartphone connectivity, dishwasher, and laundry dryer.

Lastly, the garden boasts a small stream that gracefully crosses the property.
