Description

If it is your lifetime's dream to live in a beautiful French Chateau with a sweeping driveway and mature Redwood and Maple trees, then Chateau de Bessan is the perfect place.

Le Chateau de Bessan is a beautiful 5 bedroom country estate. The Chateau dates back to the late 19th Century and has been continuously owned by 6 generations of the same family. The Chateau is set within large grounds and lies just 10km from the Mediterranean coast in the Languedoc region of Southern France. The Chateau is just a short walk from the local town of Bessan, which comes with a good range of shops, supermarkets and restaurants.

The Chateau is laid out over 3 floors, with the attic floor no longer used as a living space. The ceilings throughout the Chateau are 4 metres high.

Can be rented on a monthly basis October to April.

The room is furnished with original antique wardrobe, chest of drawers and a beautiful desk. The bedroom has views out over the grounds at the front of the Chateau

Chambre de Pierre also has a King-size double bed (which can be separated to form twin beds). The bedroom comes with an antique wardrobe and chest of drawers. The bedroom looks down on the terrace and the front grounds

More Info

The long sweeping driveway takes you up to the Chateau, from the gated entrance. There is parking for numerous vehicles.

The large swimming pool is 12m x 6m, with Roman steps for children's access and for non-swimmers to sit and relax in the water. The pool is surrounded on all sides by lawn and there are many sun-loungers and chairs with cushions and large umbrellas. This is the ideal place for peace and relaxation, listening to crickets and watching the birds.

The main lawn, facing the south terrace, is bordered by shrubs and flowers, is ideal for playing football, badminton, paddle tennis, ping pong or just relaxing with a book under a one hundred-year old maple tree, while waiting for barbecue time!

At the rear of the Chateau, there is an equally large lawn with mature trees.
