Description

Welcome to Villa Occitane Paradise, a spacious, thoughtfully designed home set in a quiet residential area just minutes from the historic centre of Uzès. Surrounded by the countryside between Uzès and Saint-Siffret, it offers an easy balance of village proximity and rural calm.

Set across 300m², the house sits within a generous 2,000m² garden, approached through a traditional stone porch, where a large fig tree quietly welcomes you on arrival. Inside, the ground floor features natural stone flooring with an underfloor cooling and heating system, keeping the house comfortable throughout the year.

At the centre of the home, a cathedral-style living room rises beneath an exposed timber roof. Two large sliding glass doors draw in the light and open directly onto the terrace, creating an easy connection between indoors and out. A staircase leads up to an open mezzanine, where a relaxed TV lounge with deep linen sofas and a babyfoot table offers a more informal place to unwind.

The kitchen is both striking and practical, centred around a black volcanic stone island. Fully open to the dining area—with no separation—it's designed for shared moments, whether cooking, gathering, or lingering at the table for ten.

The general layout of this house flows naturally, making it easy to spend time together.

Five bedrooms are arranged across two levels, offering flexibility and privacy. On the ground floor, two double bedrooms are facing each other, one facing north with a generous shower room and ensuite shower room, the other overlooking the pool with its own bathroom and ample storage. Upstairs are three further spacious bedrooms all with air-conditioning. The main suite opens onto a large private terrace and includes a bathroom with both bath and shower, along with a separate dressing area. Two additional bedrooms, both configurable as twins or doubles, each have their own bathrooms or shower room and plenty of storage.

Outside, the garden is designed for long, unhurried days. Centred around a heated saltwater pool (14m × 4m), secured with a shutter, the space is framed by oak trees and open lawns. A fully equipped summer kitchen—with fridge, plancha and sink—makes outdoor living effortless, whether for slow lunches or relaxed evening meals on the terrace.

Villa Occitane is a home that favours space, light and simplicity—a welcoming base for families or friends seeking the authentic South of France lifestyle in this quietly beautiful corner of the region.
