

Villa Indika

Region: Provence

Sleeps: 12 Bedrooms: 4 Bathrooms: 4

Overview

Villa Indika is located in the heart of the Alpilles hills. The villa has been designed in the style of a traditional Provencal bastide and is close to the old centre of Saint Rémy de Provence. Private heated pool and hot tub. Air conditioning throughout.

Description

This recently built and tastefully decorated villa accommodates up to 13 people.

It has a heated pool and air conditioning and is just a few minutes drive away from the village of Saint Rémy de Provence where there are shops and restaurants.

Saint Rémy has a golf course, as well as, tennis courts and riding stables. You can also go fishing or gliding, and there are endless places to walk or cycle through the hills and discover for yourself, unspoiled, tucked away areas.

Glanum, just outside Saint Rémy is one of the most important Roman archeological sites in Provence. Founded 300 BC, it reveals a civilization that influences life here even today.

You can see thermal baths, an avenue of houses, the temple and the natural spring, and the remains of a Gallo-Roman town dating 30-10 BC. On the road leaving Glanum are the ancient Arc de Triomphe and Les Antiquities, the gateway to Glanum, standing as they have since that time. Close by is St Paul de Mausole, where Van Gogh spent his last days.

From there it is only a short drive through the hills to Les Beaux, an ancient village perched high on the rocks, once one of the most celebrated and brilliant of the troubadour courts of love in the Middle Ages, now romantically ghostly.

The villa is also at the centre of the Baux de Provence and Côteaux d'Aix vineyards and not far from Château Neuf du Pape.

This villa is part of a large property consisting of two separate villas and with enclosed garden and security access via a large gates.

It has four bedroom, one on the ground floor, three upstairs, each with private shower rooms, and lovely views of the hills from the upstairs rooms. The two double + single bed, and the two twin-rooms, have been individually decorated in a Provencal style and the whole house is air-conditioned.

The living room is comfortably furnished, and has a fireplace, a large satellite television screen, DVD and stereo. The kitchen is typically Provencal and well equipped, with a large fridge/freezer, stove, microwave, and dishwasher, and opens onto a covered terrace, where there is a barbecue, and table and chairs. There is also laundry room with a washing machine and a dryer.

explore. On the outskirts are the Roman ruins of Glanum, the asylum of Saint-Paul-de-Mausole where Van Gogh spent time and there are many vineyards and olive groves in the surrounding areas all of which offer "tastings". The market day in St. Remy is on a Wednesday, offering everything you could want.

St. Remy is centrally placed for access to many places of interest and historic towns and villages. eg: the Pont du Gard over the river Gardon, lovely walks along the banks, the gorges of the Ardeche and the Pont d'Arc - beautiful scenery and a canoeist's heaven, Luberon villages, Mont Ventoux. For the everyday needs there are plenty of banks with cash points, supermarkets and lots of little local independent shops.

Travel

The closest highway is the A7 (exit Cavaillon) 20 minutes drive away, which goes from Lyon to Marseille. The closest train station is at Avignon and is served by the TGV (Train Grande Vitesse, i.e. high speed train) that goes to Paris in 2 hours and 40 minutes!

Airports

Marseille International is only eighty kilometres, Avignon is twenty kilometres, car rental is available.

The closest airport is Avignon as well with daily flights to Paris. But most international connections are made through the international airports of Marseille-Marignan or Paris-Charles de Gaulle.
