Location

Stroll to the village and port for its famous seafood, Noilly Prat and diverse local wines; visit the international marinas and golf courses of nearby Cap d'Agde or explore the historic Canal du Midi. Spend your holiday visiting local vineyards and picturesque French villages, including Pezenas, Agde and Sete. For beach lovers, there are beaches to suit every taste, from family-friendly, chic beachside resorts to expanses of deserted golden sands.

There is an abundance of local vineyards and picturesque French villages, including Pezenas, Agde and Sete, all within a short drive away.

The owners live and work in London but spend their holidays in Marseillan and love relaxing with family and friends at Maison Mima or at the numerous, beautiful local beaches, or at the many restaurants around Marseillan port. When they first went on holiday here, they fell in love with the charm of Marseillan town, the fantastic beaches and the surrounding countryside. There are plenty of lovely restaurants to choose but also a great choice of local shops to buy delicious food from to BBQ and cook at home. There was a recent article that described Marseillan as "St Tropez before Bardot" and that does sum up the charm, warmth and style of this lovely village.
